A Message From Your President

Dear Ladies,

My vision for the Z Club during the limits that the coronavirus pandemic has put on all of our lives is to find new ways to serve those in need. At this time we are needed that much more to give help and direction to those less fortunate than ourselves.

We must think outside the box and create an environment that makes each of us stronger in our conviction to serve our community.

We are a sisterhood of skilled, confident, strong women and I enjoy working with you all.

Vickie

Thank you to the forty-five members who have already paid their dues.

History Corner

Nancy H. Phillips, Club Historian

1913-1915
President Maggie Norman

- Membership was low during these WW I years. Ten members attended the meetings.

- The club women had many opportunities to serve the community. Two thousand naval men were based at the U. S. Quarantine Hospital in Lewes.

- The women planned a lounge and rest room for the sailors. A building in front of the gas office building on the ocean dunes was established. (Cape Henlopen Park.) The club paid for the lighting, heating and the lavatory expenses. The club held many fundraisers for these expenses. Several local newspapers published the club's weekly activities. (The Pilot, Milford Chronicle, and the News Journal)

ZWAANENDAEL CLUB, LEWES.

The members of the Zwaanendael Club of Lewes met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Johnston, and a very entertaining evening was spent after the business hour was over. The program for the evening had been arranged by Mrs. Walton Virden, the subject being "Arts and Crafts."

Mrs. Adele Hocker and Mrs. Walton Virden read interesting papers on "How to Read a Picture," and "Arts and Crafts" respectively. Mrs. Johnston entertained by rendering a vocal solo, "Forgotten."

A rather unique entertainment was a quiz on the subject of the evening, in which Mrs. William Hocker won a prize

NAVAL BASE REST SET UP BY LEWES CLUB

The Zwaanendael Club of Lewes met at the home of Mrs. Charles Martins on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Charles Johnston, the president, presiding.

A letter was read from Miss Helen McKim, chairman for Sussex Y. W. C. A. War Work Council, calling attention to the work and needs of both associations and offering to give us a talk on the vital needs of the country, which the members of the Zwaanendael will look forward to hearing in the near future.

Food conservation was given a place in the program also.

A very interesting report of work done and gifts contributed to the Naval Base Rest Room for our marines was given by Mrs. Joseph Martin, who has been in charge of the room during the past week. Next week Mrs. Charles Johnston will act as chairman of the room. The club is so gratified that the marines use and get pleasure from the room. It was one of the great needs, especially when the cold weather set in, and the people of Lewes are helping the club generously in maintaining the rest room for the boys from the Fourth Naval Base.

The literary program consisted of a paper on the executive and legislative form of our government by Mrs. William Hocker, which was followed by Miss May Sharp on the judiciary. Both articles were intensely instructive and appropriate, as the subject for the year is Civics along various lines. The members are being instructed on government, so as to vote intelligently, should Delaware have equal suffrage.

Mrs. T. C. Carpenter read "What War is Doing to Club Life," by Miss Alice W. Winter, from the Federation Bulletin, and several newspaper clippings were read.

The hostess served light refreshments, after which two new members were initiated by the president.

Owing to the next meeting date being the day before Thanksgiving, the date was changed to Friday, November 30, when Mrs. George Vickers will act as hostess.

The News Journal published these two articles in November 1917 which describes the club's efforts.

Thank you Denise Clemons from the Rollins Center for locating these articles.

Get Inspired with "Grassroots" Projects

- Join the Arbor Day Foundation and receive ten free trees to plant or donate ten trees to be planted in a threatened rain forest or one of our National Forests.
- Save trees by initiating a "Go Paperless" campaign.
- Educate members on the dangers of poor air quality, which is the number one cause of premature death around the world.
- Support wetland conservation and learn how wetlands are a deterrent to both flooding and drought.
- Organize a household hazardous waste collection with your local services, to ensure these dangerous materials are disposed of properly.
- Educate club and community members about the importance of pollinators and how to create healthy habitats where they can thrive.
- Provide a program for club and community members that highlights the best native plants for food and cover.
- Advocate for and support regulations that limit light pollution, which is dangerous to nocturnal wildlife and disruptive to ecosystems.
- Learn about ocean wildlife in peril, such as sea turtles and manatees, and organize volunteer or fundraising opportunities to help protect these species.
- Offer a workshop on building birdhouses and provide information on bird species, their characteristics and behaviors, and their varying habitat requirements.
- Commemorate America Recycles Day (November 15), a program of Keep America Beautiful, by organizing a special event.
- Coordinate a children's poster contest on recycling.
- Hold a community workshop on sustainable gardening.
- Hold a club yard sale to repurpose gently used items and donate the proceeds to various environmental charities.
- Plan a clean-up day in the community by coordinating groups of volunteers to clean eyesore areas and properly discard the waste.
- Sponsor a "Yard of the Month" or other monthly beautification contest that recognizes community enhancement.
- Establish a hiking or biking trail in the community or maintain an existing trail, encouraging people to learn more about nature and enjoy the outdoors.
- Organize a local garden tour and donate the proceeds to a community garden or conservation project.
- And many more provided in Club Manual.

(This list is a brief offering of project ideas. Please visit Club Manual for other grassroots projects and/or programs as well as those with Affiliate Organizations or Resources.)

September and October Fundraising Total: $2,168

WOW! When Vickie says "think outside the box" she means it.

Ladies,
Our Flea Market was a success as we made $640. Thank you to all that donated so many unique and great items. It was fun to see what showed up on my porch each day. In addition we were also able to take several boxes of items to help with What is Your Voice's yard sale. Vickie

Ladies,

Thank you very, very much for taking the time to make the delicious cookies for What Is Your Voice. The cookies were sold at their Yard Sale Fundraiser this past Saturday.

Jacqueline was very appreciative of receiving over 35 dozen cookies. She wrote today and said "We had the biggest turn out ever since our launch in 2014! We will have one a year and that will be in the fall. "
Any cookies not sold will be provided to the survivors.

Thank you too, Eileen Spangler, for helping out at the very busy event.

Maureen Keeney and Terry Yates
What Is Your Voice co-chairs

Hi Ladies,

Well, we got through the Home Expo last weekend. Saturday was a pretty busy day. Sunday we were never sure if it would rain or not, but we were able to stay until 2 p.m. We closed up and beat the downpour of rain by 10 minutes.

Thank you very much for volunteering to help at the event. It is not always easy trying to bring people to look at our "goods" and tell them about the masks, raffles, pinecones, surprise gifts, and cookies. I know that I slept soundly Saturday and Sunday nights!

Thank you to those of you who did have an opportunity to join us on Sunday. We thank you for your support.

Thank you Kathy Cochran for the beautiful and informative Z Club exhibit.

The total sales amount for the two days is $ 1,528. We could not have done it without you.

Group Home for Girls

We are currently in discussions with Cherelyn Homlish, our new contact at the Group Home for Girls, about Zoom tutoring. Once we have the details ironed out we will share the details. We know many of you have missed your interactions with the girls and have worried about their schoolwork.

Thanks,
Mary Ann Rocks and Lauren Rose

Cherelyn says "As you know our teens struggle with school and could really use your tutoring assistance. I don't imagine that you are ready to return to the group home, but perhaps some of you would be willing to zoom in to the group home to assist? The teens are used to that format of course, because they are using it for school. Let us know if that would work for anyone and we can get set up to do that once or twice a week."
