Information for the Period 1913-1915

President Maggie Norman

Taken from Day Book 1

- Club meetings were now being held in the homes of the members.
- The first President's luncheon was held in February 1914; Seven members attended.
- The members contributed to the Belgium War Relief movement by knitting gloves and scarves.
- The club emphasis was placed on education due to the changing times.
- For many years the club held a Children's Day in April. The members became active in getting legislation passed protecting children in the labor movement. A bill was passed in 1913, known as the Child Labor Bill, prohibiting children from working under the age of sixteen.
